Reasons for allowance

Claims 1-36 are allowable over the IDS filed on 4/24/09.

The references mentioned in the IDS filed on 4/24/09, whether alone or in combination do not teach “compiling source code for at least one of the segments to generate two code sections, one of which is functionally redundant with respect to the other; generating comparison code for comparing results produced by execution of the two code sections; execute each of the code sections in a different computational domain to generate respective results; compare the respective results using the comparison code to detect said computational errors; and execute one of the code sections to alter further flow of execution of the program only if the respective results are identical.

Dependent claims 2-17 depend from allowable independent claim and inherently include limitations therein and therefore are allowed as well.

Independent claims 18, 31 and 34 are also allowable for having similar limitations to claim 1.

Dependent claims 19-30, 32-33 and 35-36 depend from allowable independent claim and inherently include limitations therein and therefore are allowed as well.

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/24/09 has been entered.

Conclusion

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
